

ArtBerkeley, Inc. is a non-profit 501(c)(3) membership organization of artists based in Martinsburg, WV.

The mission of the ArtBerkeley is to enhance the Arts Community in Berkeley County, West Virginia and the surrounding region by developing resources for artists of all disciplines, facilitating Arts related exhibitions and events, encouraging Arts education, and promoting cooperation among all arts organizations in the region.

We are an organization of artists and for artists.

We invite creative individuals of all disciplines, from painters, sculptors, weavers, and artisans, to writers, poets, actors, musicians, and everything in between to join us as we build a vibrant Arts community in Berkeley County and the surrounding region.

ArtBerkeley was founded on the idea that all forms of Art deserve support and recognition. Our members represent a wide variety of Arts disciplines.

Membership in ArtBerkeley is open to all on payment of dues (Currently $20.00 per year), and cannot be denied membership on the basis of race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin. Term of membership is one year, renewable at the annual membership meeting in May.

If you are an artist of any discipline, or just someone who believes that the Arts are good for people, please join us and help build our community for the artists and everyone else.
